Walk-ins are those Gilwellians who show up on the Friday or Saturday at Reunion and are wearing their beads.

Along with the Screening Policy chart the extra forms needed are the Hold Harmless, Medical forms and Code of Conduct, which are all attached

Arrival Times at Reunion:

- No one is allowed on site till they have been screened by Scouts Canada
- For “working” Contingents only & need an early-bird pass starting at Thursday at 5 pm till Friday at 1 pm
- All other contingents arrive no earlier than Friday at 1 pm.

Contingent Trailers:

- Only “working” contingent trailers will be allowed on the field prior to Friday at 1 pm.
 - All contingent trailers will go to parking lot, then get clearance to go to the Loop. Do Not Leave Your Trailer In The Parking Lot!
 - Trailer will be left in the Loop and a member of the contingent must stay with the trailer until Ranger Paul moves it to your marquee spot. A Contingent member is responsible for hooking up/unhooking the trailer. No Personal Vehicles Will Be Allowed on the Field.

NOW: Registration deadline for the Whitby contingent is June 30th. This will give Brian and myself enough time to get our numbers correct.

Reunion Early Bird Registration Fee: (For returning Gilwellians and Scouter's with Pt 1)

Weekend - $25 (registration) + $10 (Marquee) + $45 (Food) = $80

So now that you have read this far, here are your option to registering for reunion.

On-line at www.whitbygilwell.weebly.com and go to the tab “Reunion info & Registration” and scroll down to the box that says “Registration is now open” and it will take you to the registration form. Thank you, Tim Pollock for updating the website and forms. We are hopeful that this might make things easier all round for everyone.

Now for payment option:

At the end you will be give the chance to pay by PayPal or Credit Card (if not this, then just click on return to Whitby Scouting and yes, we will still get your order. If unsure that your order went through, please contact Tim Pollock or MJ Stevenson to see if it went through. Don't submit twice.

If cash or cheque, please contact Brian Wick for instruction on how to get it to him.

OR

E-money transfer to Brian Wick at whitbygilwell@gmail.com (don't forget to give him the security answer)

So now remember, the club “dead line is Jun 30th”. This will give Brian and myself time to make sure that our numbers jive, and for me to complete the registration forms for reunion. So, hopefully these improvements make life easier for everyone, and that registration will be done smoother.

Have a great day

MJ
